The Process of Transitional Counseling Program

Referral to Transitional Counseling Program (TCP) with NCADA

Schedule Initial Assessment

Initial Assessment with Counselor at NCADA

Low Level of Concern
- With some education, return to school/program as recommended by counselor.

Moderate level of concern
- Recommendation for enrollment into TCP program
  - Adolescent will attend recommended workshops and at least two individual/family counseling sessions with TCP counselor.

Significant Concern of Mental health or substance use issues
- Referral to community resources for appropriate treatment services
  - Caregivers are also encouraged to attend workshops to increase education and support

Complete program for a smooth transition back to school/program/home life.